The Qur'an Exhibition
The Qur’an Exhibition

Europe’s largest exhibition on the Holy Qur’an, it’s revelation, it’s preservation and it’s message to humanity
August 2006
Introducing a pioneering, beautifully designed, visually attractive and breathtaking exhibition on the sacred Islamic text the Quran. This exhibition provides a true insight into the Quran, its revelation, its preservation and its message to humanity.

Glimpse through Islamic history to see a rare display of unique hand-written historical Quran’s from across the world:

Elegant Quran pages from the earliest days of Islam (from 750CE onwards).

Complete highly decorated Qurans that are centuries old, from over 100 to 800 years old.

All showing the breathtaking beauty and tranquillity that typifies Islam.

From Spain across to Indonesia and from Africa up to China view the wondrous and lavish calligraphy which has been used to write historical Qurans that have inspired generations and brought peace and harmony to this multi-cultural world.

Discover how the Quran was revealed, how it has been preserved and what the Quran says about the divinely revealed books, peace, justice for all, women’s rights, kindness to parents, enjoining good and forbidding evil, community and social harmony and much more.

The Quran is a Divinely revealed Book which was delivered to humanity over fourteen hundred years ago by Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). In it, is contained a message that invites mankind to the worship of Allah alone and an instruction to adhere to the teaching of the last Prophet, Muhammad (peace be upon him). The Quran serves as a guide for individual, legal, social and spiritual conduct and in it lay guidelines that define codes of social justice, individual responsibility, human rights and moral order.

The Quran is the most memorised Book in the world. It is a book by which Muslims guide their lives and devote their worship to Allah alone.

This pioneering exhibition includes a rare display of Qur’an leaves and complete Qur’an manuscripts from all the centuries of Islam as well as illustrating the beautiful styles of calligraphy that have been used to write the Quran through the course of history.
