

Date: 16th January 2012

Press Release: London - The Islamic Cultural Centre and Exhibition Islam prepare to launch the 'The Islamic Cultural Exhibition' at the ICC from 4th to the 8th of Feb 2012.

London, UK: Exhibition Islam along with The Islamic Cultural Centre and The London Central Mosque will be hosting this wonderful exhibition during the World Interfaith Harmony Week, which is taking place during the first week of February 2012.

This exhibition will once again open the doors of the 'Muhammad – A Mercy to Mankind' permanent gallery, which has been designed and installed by Exhibition Islam. This free exhibition is open between 12pm – 6pm daily between Saturday 4th February and Wednesday 8th February 2012.

This outstanding exhibition combines:

- Impressive educational displays with 8 different zones.
- Beautiful multimedia presentations for each zone
- Unique sculpted artefacts and interactive models developed by Exhibition Islam
- An exquisite and historic collection of Qur'anic and other faith manuscripts and Antiques

Mr. Shahid Munir, Exhibition Islam Director has stated regarding this event "We hope to use this occasion to once again invite guests and members of the public to visit the 'Muhammad (peace be upon him) – Mercy to Mankind' exhibition gallery. This exhibition gallery is fast becoming a prominent assembly point for members of different faiths to interact with the Islamic faith and explore more about its belief systems and history"

This fabulous and unique event serves as a great day out for the entire family. On site is a restaurant and Regents Park is immediately behind the mosque.

Address:

Islamic Cultural Centre and Central London Mosque, 146 Park Road, London, NW8 7RG
