

Press Release: Exhibition Islam announces the planned launch of 'Islam's relations with other Religions' exhibition at The London Central Mosque and the Islamic Cultural Centre, London.

London, UK: Exhibition Islam and The London Central Mosque and the Islamic Cultural Centre are pleased to announce that 'Islam's relations with other Religions' exhibition, will be launched at The London Central Mosque and Islamic Cultural Centre (Regents Park Mosque) in London, UK, between Saturday 19th and Thursday 24th June 2010.

This modern exhibition will seek to draw on textual references and historical milestones to establish how the fundamental teachings of the Islamic faith promote religious freedom, justice, tolerance and mercy amongst all societies.

The Quran states:

'O mankind! We have created you from a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes, that you may know one another. Verily, the most honourable of you with Allah is that (believer) who has At-Taqwa [piety].
Verily, Allah is All-Knowing, All-Aware'.
(Al-Hujurat 49:13)

Prophet Muhammad (may the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) established a truly just, tolerant and cohesive society when he established a state in Madina. This state not only provided and preserved the fundamental religious rights to religious minorities living in Madina, but also revised and perfected the first constitution of human rights to be written in the Arabian Peninsula.

Throughout Islamic history, the Muslim experiences in the Middle East, Jerusalem, Spain, Greece, Syria and North Africa all pay testimony to the fact that Muslim societies were tolerant of other faiths and were the greatest proponents of social cohesion and prosperity. Indeed at one time most of World Jewry and a large percentage of Christians and other faith communities lived and prospered in the Islamic World.

The 6 day exhibition will witness the introduction of brand new exhibits and displays that are currently in production from the Exhibition Islam team. The exhibition will also showcase a number of manuscripts, coins, and other artefacts that show how the Islamic faith gives immense importance to the freedom of religion and recognises people of different faith backgrounds.

For further information please contact Imtiaz Alam on +44 (0) 7787 570 560 or Shahid Munir on +44 (0) 7901 687 979 or email mail@exhibitionislam.com.

If you are able to assist with the cost of advertisement of this event, please review the following link: http://www.exhibitionislam.com/resources/pressRelease/42\_Request\_for\_Donations.pdf

About Exhibition Islam

"Exhibition Islam, the world's leading Islamic exhibition provider specialises in promoting a greater understanding of Islam in the international arena. Exhibition Islam utilizes the latest exhibition resources to deliver professional "museum style" exhibitions that address a diverse spectrum of themes and topics. Having hosted over 750 exhibitions, and attracting almost 1 million visitors from across the globe, Exhibition Islam has both the reputation and experience to continue to develop greater and more challenging concepts for the presentation of Islam. Exhibition Islam is a UK Registered Charity (1121147) and is based in London, UK. For further details visit www.exhibitionislam.com."